

Barclay Street Real Estate Helps Bring Calgary Art and Music to a Global Stage

June 13, 2013

Barclay Street Real Estate is a locally-owned commercial real estate brokerage that proudly supports the Calgary community. For the third year in a row, Barclay Street is sponsoring Sled Island, an annual music and arts festival hosted in Calgary from June 19-22, 2013.

This year, Sled Island will bring together 25,000 people from all over the continent for 4 days of art, music, film and comedy shows hosted in 35 venues across the city. With nearly 350 performing bands, the festival boasts over 50% Albertan artists.

"We are proud to support Sled Island for another year. The festival provides so many strong opportunities for the local art and music communities and has brought great exposure to Calgary on a national and international platform," exclaims Dan Harmsen, Vice President and Associate Broker at Barclay Street. "Calgary is a culturally-rich city with many talented artists and Barclay Street is happy to be a part of their journey at Sled Island."

About Sled Island

Since 2007, Sled Island's innovative, eclectic programming and independent spirit have combined with Calgary's youthful energy to produce a festival that now attracts a diverse and global audience. The festival is highly praised by local and international artists, and was recently voted one of the top 10 music festivals in Canada by listeners of CBC Radio 3.
