

From the moment I sent off my first email to Aline and then received a quick and friendly response back, I knew this was someone that was willing to help me find a great space. Aline answered all my questions in a very timely manner, and I immediately felt she understood my needs and knew exactly what I was looking for.

She instantly set up a meeting time that worked with my schedule and after our first initial meeting I knew she would make this happen. Aline provided me with a few different ways to get a hold of her, assisted me throughout the entire process, provided answers to all my questions and best of all I could sense she genuinely believed in my vision for the space. I would recommend Aline to anyone looking for commercial real estate.
