

Had a lovely experience with Myles at Barclay Street. Very professional, hard working and dedicated to assisting tenants with finding the right space for their commercial needs. He went above and beyond and put me in touch with an amazing contractor for a buildout and another banking contact who was able to secure business funding for me. He was very honest, extremely patient and selfless throughout my search which I appreciated and they would be my first choice for any future commercial needs.

Oma Kakpovbia